

GERMANS FAIL TO MAKE GAINS

Offensive Crumbles at All Points With Heavy
Losses in Attacks

TRENCHES ARE TAKEN

Allies Now Hold Two-Thirds of Famous "Labyrinth" After Eighth Days of Struggling.

Paris, June 7.—German attacks of unusual violence have been made in the region north of Arras, Northwestern France. The War Office announces that the German offensive has broken down everywhere, with heavy losses to the attackers. The statement follows:

"In the region to the north of Arras the enemy undertook yesterday evening a very violent effort to recapture the positions which he had lost recently.
The whole of the front from Ablain to Neuville, and particularly the sugar refinery at Souchez, underwent a bombardment almost continually to which our artillery replied energetically.

"Five German counter-attacks were launched on the slope east of La Chapelle-de-Lorette. The counter-attacks have been incessant in the wood to the east of the road from Aix-Noulette to Souchez.

"The German offensive was overwhelmed everywhere, and we maintained all our positions, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy. Between the Aix-Noulette-Souchez road and the Ablain-Souchez road, we took several trenches of the enemy, in which we made about 30 prisoners."

The following official communication has been issued by the War office.

"In the sectors to the north of Arras the struggle continues with extreme activity and to our advantage.
We have delivered several favorable attacks on the two sides of the road from Aix-Noulette to Souchez, and gained some ground in the wood to the east of that road and to the south, in the region of Fond de Buval.

"At Neuville St. Vaast our progress continues. In the northern part of the village we have carried several houses, and at the same time tightened our investment of an enemy shelter in a group of houses to the northwest of that locality and have occupied the passageway leading to it.

"We have captured new trenches in the center and to the south of the 'labyrinth' and have advanced about a hundred metres. The struggle has continued without interruption for eight days in that great work, two-thirds of which we now hold.

"To north of the Aisne, to the east of Tracy le Mont, on the neighboring heights of Moulin-Sous-Touvent, we delivered an attack, which realized important gains.

"After a very efficacious bombardment on a front of one kilometre (about two thirds of a mile) we captured with a single effort two successive lines of trenches and several enemy works. Three violent counter attacks were repulsed by our troops, who took more than 200 prisoners and three '77' guns.

"In Champagne, near Beaufort, we have progressed to the line on the heights of the Meuse. In the Vosges there have been artillery engagements."

Berlin, June 7.—The War Office issued the following statement:

"Western theatre of war: Attacks on the eastern slopes of Lorette heights were repulsed, with heavy losses to the enemy. Heavy fighting is in progress in only some portions of the trenches. The remainder of the sugar refinery at Souchez is in possession of the French.

"In Neuville we lost two groups of houses.

"Mines of the enemy exploded in Champagne were quite ineffective.

"We dropped bombs yesterday on Calais and the aviation grounds at St. Clement, near Luneville."

ANOTHER WAR DEVICE French Are Using Bombs With Laughing Gas

Boulogne, June 7.—Close behind the French lines near Rheims is located the largest bomb factory in France or England. It turns out 7,000 bombs of all variety of trench mortars and other devices for use in trench warfare.

Among the newer bombs being manufactured here is a chemical hand grenade with a charge which will open the grenade and frees a liquid chemical similar in general nature to the laughing-gas used by dentists.
Visitors to the factory are taken to an experimental trench close at hand and given an illustration of the effect which the explosion of one of these bombs has on a group of soldiers. To show that the gas has no unpleasant after-effect, a squad of soldiers is sent into a trench in which a specimen bomb has been thrown.
The effect of the fumes is to bring water to the eyes in such quantities that the occupants of the trench would be quite incapable of defending themselves for several minutes.
Using a weapon would be out of the question. The pricking sensation in the eyes is not pleasant, but it is not painful, and the effects completely wear off in a quarter of an hour.
The first effect of the gas is to throw the occupants of the trench into a fit of violent laughter, their eyes meantime streaming with tears.

It is along this section of the front that the Germans have brought into action the largest variety of chemical missiles, including, it is alleged, ether bombs, gas bombs and bombs containing inflammable liquids. Against these the French are developing a variety of missiles the contents of which aim, not at killing the enemy in ways prohibited by the Hague Conventions, but merely at placing him out of the fighting for a limited space of time.

DROWNS IN BATH TUB.

Woman Missed in Delirium Found Oddly Dead.

Bristol, Pa., June 7.—Nellie, wife of Fred, Kitchener, of Pond street, was found dead in a bathtub at her home yesterday morning. The tub was partly filled with water.

Mrs. Kitchener, 31 years of age, had been threatened with an attack of typhoid fever. She had been ill since Monday and was being nursed by her sister, who gave the dead woman her medicine at three o'clock. At 4 the sister again awoke and found her sister missing from the bed. She was traced to the bathroom and found with her head under the water.

It is said that the fever had temporarily deranged her and she labored under the hallucination her husband had lost his job.

MEANT TO KILL WIFE.

Slayer of Son Regrets Result of Shooting And Will Recover.

Lebanon, Pa., June 7.—John Miller, who Saturday night shot and killed his 20 year old son Cyrus, was yesterday declared by the surgeons to have a fighting chance for his life, although the bullet they removed from his back had pierced the left lung.

Unless pneumonia sets in, his recovery is considered reasonably certain. In expressing regret for the death of his son, Miller declared he had purposed killing his wife and not the boy.

KICKS FATAL TO WIFE.

Husband Arrested When he Bars Way to Physicians.

Pittsburgh, June 7.—Mrs. Michael Kurl, aged 28, of McKeesport, died yesterday morning from injuries received a short time before when she was kicked in the stomach and otherwise abused upon asking her husband where he had spent the night.

Kurl took home supplies for Sunday Saturday evening, and then disappeared. He is said to have boarded a street car for Pittsburgh. When he reappeared yesterday morning, Mrs. Kurl asked, "Where have you been all night?"

Kurl, it is alleged, knocked the woman down and then kicked her.
When neighbors called a hospital ambulance, Kurl refused to let the physicians enter until he had been arrested.

U. S. REJOINER TO GERMANY

President Wilson's Note
Will Probably Leave
Tonight For Berlin

IN HANDS OF EXPERTS

Administration Will Make Reply So Clear That Direct Answer Cannot Be Avoided.

Washington, June 7.—The American rejoinder to Germany was still held up today, twice in the hands of the legal experts of the State Department it was twice recalled by President Wilson.

Today the same statement concerning the note that was made immediately after last Friday's Cabinet meeting was forthcoming, that it "will probably be cabled tonight".
Friends of the Administration say that the delay is justified because of the necessity of making the note so clear that a direct answer cannot be avoided.

Others openly hint that pressure of the most extreme type is being brought to bear to have the note changed so that further diplomatic exchanges will be certain thus muddying up the issue in the diplomatic stream and getting the entire question between the governments so involved that weeks of correspondence will be needed.

It has been no secret that Secretary Bryan was opposed to adopting a tone of finality in the various German notes.

President Wilson's note to Germany will be cabled to Ambassador Gerard tonight or early tomorrow, according to word from the White House last night. The only reason for the delay, it was said, was the President's desire to make the phraseology of the note so explicit and unmistakable as to leave no room for doubt or further argument concerning the position of the United States government that—

The right of visit and search must be exercised, and passengers and crews of unarmed ships on which neutrals are voyaging must be transferred to a place of safety before any prize is destroyed by a belligerent warship.

POPE TO ISSUE WHITE BOOK

Pontiff Will Show Efforts to Secure Peace.

Rome, June 7.—A white book, explaining the Pope's efforts to secure peace and his attempts to lessen some of the evils of war by an exchange of prisoners, attention to their spiritual needs, and providing them with facilities for corresponding with families will shortly be issued by the Vatican.

The publication will contain only documents addressed to all belligerents, and will not, therefore, be confidential.

As its main object will be to show the absolute neutrality of the Holy See, the Pope's personal appeals to the Kaiser and the Austrian Emperor probably will not be included.
These appeals practically protested against the atrocities in Belgium, the arrest of Cardinal Mercier, the submarine warfare on merchant shipping, the sinking of the Lusitania and the use of asphyxiating gases.
These protests probably will be published after the war.

DISGRACED THEMSELVES.

Passports of Two Disloyal Americans Revoked.

Berlin, June 6.—The passports of two American citizens living at Dresden, Leon Raines and Karl Recknagel, have been ordered revoked by the American Embassy on instructions from the State Department at Washington.

The men, it is said, adversely criticized the American government in newspaper articles, saying that they were ashamed of their citizenship.

SUIT ENDS IN MISTRIAL

Former Cotton King Asked $1,500
Of John Hays Hammond, Mining Engineer.

Washington, June 7.—The $1,500-000 damage suit brought by Daniel J. Sully, the former cotton king of New York, against John Hays Hammond, millionaire mining engineer, has resulted in a mistrial.

After being deadlocked for thirty two hours, the jury was discharged by Justice Stafford at 8:30 o'clock last night, because no agreement could be reached.

It was alleged by Sully that Hammond violated a contract and agreement with him for the promotion of the Cotton Securities Company, organized to promote the Doremus Cotton Gin. The case has been pending for several years, and the trial took nearly three weeks. It was given to the jury Saturday morning.

SHOOTS WOMAN AND MAN.

Rains Bullets on Father of Son-in-Law he Accuses of Ill-Treating Girl.

Philadelphia, June 7.—As the result of an argument over the treatment of his sister, Dominic Sciarion, 24 years old, of No. 720 Annin st., fired three pistol shots into the stomach of Dominic Ambrosio, 50 years old, of No. 828 Kater street, as the latter was sitting last night on his own front door steps. Ambrosio is in the Pennsylvania Hospital in a dying condition. Sciarion fired a fourth shot, which missed Ambrosio and lodged in the arm of Camella Lannanzo, of No. 811 Kater street.
Following the shooting Sciarion was backed into an alley near Ninth and Fitzwater streets by an enraged mob of several hundred persons and later arrested by the police.

FRANK'S LAST APPEAL

Prison Board Expected to Act Today in His Plea for Commutation.

Atlanta, June 7.—A recommendation by the State prison board to Governor Slaton on Leo M. Frank's application for commutation of his sentence from death to life imprisonment is looked for here today or tomorrow.

That the governor would take some time to consider the matter was deemed certain from the fact that Solicitor General Dorsey, who prosecuted Frank, would appear before the executive, in the event of a recommendation for mercy, to oppose compliance with it.

HANGS SELF IN CLOSET.

Roommate Finds Invalid's Body Swinging.

Philadelphia, June 7.—Despondent because he had been ill for months and feared that he would never recover, Arthur Hymiller, 35 years old committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself in his room at No. 1607 Race street. His body, with the knees doubled up to prevent his feet from touching the floor, was found swinging from a rope fastened to a hook in a closet by his roommate, Isaac Delas, late in the afternoon.

HINDENBURG'S MOVEMENTS

German Counselor Returns Unexpectably to Rome

Rome, June 7.—Counselor Hindenburg, of the German embassy, who departed from Rome with Ambassador von Buelow, unexpectedly returned today. His arrival created a sensation in diplomatic circles.

The purpose of Hindenburg's visit was not known. Because of the prominent part he played in the Austro-Italian negotiations considerable significance was attached to his unexpected visit.

LABORERS DIE IN FIRE

Others Jump From Their Quarters
And Third May Lose Life

Franklin, Pa., June 7.—Two men were burned to death and another was burned, probably fatally, in a fire which destroyed a building occupied by laborers on the farm of former Representative J. G. Sibley.
Two men escaped by jumping.

BATTLE IN THE GULF OF RIGA

Russian Cruiser Torpedoed and Three German Ships Are Sunk

6-HOURS' CANNONADE

Kaiser's Transports Move Up Baltic With Intention of Landing Troops Against Russians.

Berlin, June 7.—A German submarine torpedoed and sunk the Russian second class cruiser Amur in the Baltic on Friday night, it is officially announced today.

London, June 7.—Three German vessels were sunk or badly damaged and the Russian transport Yenisee was torpedoed in the naval engagement in the Gulf of Riga, according to an official announcement from Petrograd today.

A semi-official statement denies that the main German and Russian Baltic fleets have been engaged, but Stockholm dispatches say that a violent cannonade was heard from the direction of Gotland for six hours, indicating that a real battle was raging.

"Enemy torpedo boats, escorting large vessels, appeared at the entrance to the Gulf of Riga on Thursday," the statement said. "They retired at the approach of our naval forces, but later hydro aeroplanes from the German ships attempted to bombard our warships. The attacks were without result and the hydroaeroplanes were driven off.

"The enemy repeated the attempt on Sunday, but the hostile ships were driven off by our submarines. In the engagement the Russian transport Yenisee was submarined and sunk. Thirty two of her crew were saved.

"Coast guards and scout ships reported that in the action on Sunday our newly laid mines and our submarines sunk or damaged three enemy vessels."

Petrograd news dispatches telling of the naval action say a large fleet of German transports was concentrated at Kiel.

Under protection of the German Baltic squadron, the transports moved up the Baltic, passing between the Oesel and Gotland Island, with the intention of landing troops in the Courland region to seize Riga and outflank the Russians operating near Libau.

The Petrograd correspondent of the Times cabled that the Germans, if successful might even have attempted an advance on Petrograd.

Her Operation.

Paris, June 6.—Sarah Bernhardt, who is staying at Andornos, has completely recovered from the effects of her operation. She says:

"I shall make my next public appearance at Bordeaux, where I will poems, particularly a few verses written by my granddaughter. She wept so much at the time of my operation I must make her this return.

My appearance will be made in behalf of Dr. Denuec, who attended me with such skill."

Mme. Sarah added that afterwards she would go to Paris, where she would play the principal part in a new piece by Maurice Donnay.

The flight occupied ninety minutes.

tators for nearly an hour.

Captured.

Paris, June 7.—The French mine layer Casabianca was blown up by a mine at the entrance to a bay on the Aegean Sea on the night of June 3.

The Casabianca was a 960 ton Some of her crew were rescued by an English destroyer. It is believed that other survivors reached shore and were taken prisoners by the Turks.

The Casabianca was a 960-ton ship, built in 1895. She was 269 feet in length and 27 1-2 feet at her beam. Her armament included one four-inch and ten smaller guns. She carried a crew of about 130.

ALLIES' BIG GAINS IN DARDANELLES

Two Lines of Turkish Trenches Taken and Are Now Held

CAPTURE OF GERMANS.

Warships, Artillery and Bayonets Combine to Deal Heavy Losses to Moslem Troops.

London, June 7.—The allies in their offensive on the Gallipoli peninsula June 4, captured and held two lines of Turkish trenches along a front of nearly three miles. In Mesopotamia the British forces have received from the Turks the surrender of Amara and taken more than 2000 prisoners 13 guns, a gunboat, barges and steamers. The pursuit of the Turks, who were dispersed into the marshes continues as an all trench warfare, which character the fighting on the Gallipoli peninsula also has assumed.

The allies found their general advance hindered through the inability of part of their force to penetrate the wire entanglements which the artillery fire had not sufficiently destroyed. This left other sections of the force open to enfilading fire, therefore part of the ground gained had to be given up. Some also was lost when the Turks counter-attacked.

A gain of 500 yards on a front of three miles in this section of fighting however, is considered satisfactory by the British particularly as it induces the Turks to counter-attacks, in which they suffered very heavy losses.

EXCITEMENT IN ROUMANIA

Thousands in Bucharest Urge Declaration of War

London, June 7.—Reuters correspondent at Bucharest telegraphs that a great demonstration was held there yesterday in favor of intervention by Rumania in the war in support of the allies. About 30,000 persons marched in possession, with flags flying and bugles sounding, to the Italian legation.

There speeches were delivered eulogizing Italy for entering the war.
In the afternoon partisans of Alexander Marghioman, the conservative leader, together with socialists, organized a counter demonstration.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the conservative party the attitude of M. Marghioman in favor of Germany was discussed.

After a long debate the majority condemned his leadership of the party M. Marghioman thereupon left the meeting, followed by his supporters.

A meeting of the whole party has been called for today under the presidency of Jean Lahovary, who represents the wing of the party which is favorable to the allies.

LIQUOR IN IRON PIPE.

West Virginians Also Use Extinguishers And Gas Drums.

Fayetteville, W. Va., June 7.—A Loop Creek man has hit upon an ingenious scheme to evade the law relative to the shipment of liquor into this State. An ordinary piece of iron pipe, which contained a gallon of liquor, was handled by unsuspecting express officials as a simple piece of machinery and delivered to the consignee.

A fire extinguisher was shipped to this city recently with three gallons of bourbon in it. This plan is said to be frequently worked.

The carbonic acid gas drums of soda fountains, however, are taboo.
They came so frequently that they fell under suspicion and can no longer be used as liquor conveyors with impunity.

Mrs. Mary Murray, aged 70 years, of South street, Portsmouth, sustained injuries Friday when she fell from the third floor of the tea and coffee store of James G. Gill on Roanoke dock, down the elevator, shaft to the ground floor, which resulted in her death an hour later.

BRITISH NAVY
PLAYS ITS PART.

In view of the fact that the British fleet have been able to deliver no crushing blow to those of Germany—that the German submarines have flaunted their prowess in the very mouths of English harbors, have made wreckage of powerful dreadnoughts and cruisers in the narrows of the Dardanelles, and played havoc with English and neutral commerce in the waters washing England's shores—there have not been wanting American writers to ask "what has it advantaged Great Britain to possess a navy doubling in the number of its line of battleships and fighting cruisers the massive armaments of all her foes combined? The Norfolk Virginia-Pilot says a satisfactory answer to this query is not far to seek. But for England's naval supremacy German men of war would be sweeping over every ocean with paralyzing effect upon all international commerce. But for that supremacy, England could not have chased the German flag from the high seas, maintained her own trade routes to India and Australia; could not have transported safely troops and munitions from her Eastern and Western colonies to swell the strength and supply the needs of her army in Europe; could not even have thrown to France that timely assistance which probably saved that country from subjugation. Indeed it may be affirmed that had her navy been weaker than that of Germany, Great Britain could have taken no efficient part in the Continental struggle. So long as she can keep the main fleets of the Teutonic allies bottled up, England is the backbone of the Anti-Germanic league and can devote her mighty resources of men and money to reinforcement of its needs; but were the sea power of Germany and Austria relatively great enough to venture out and contest on equal terms England's mastery on that element where now she reigns supreme, the whole situation would be changed. The lot of isolation would be transferred, the ports of Albion instead of those of Germany would be sealed against foreign bottoms and England's problem would be how to feed and defend herself instead of how most quickly and effectively to cut off Germany from all sources of external supplies. Reverse the naval superiority of the great belligerents and the odds in favor of German triumph would be three to one.

GERMANY AND THE UNITED STATES.

A writer in one of the Washington papers yesterday attempted to show that the conservative element of Germany was averse to friction between the United States and the Fatherland, and that Ambassador Bernstorff was endeavoring to bring a better feeling between the two countries. It was also shown in another article that Germany deemed it essential that the United States remain neutral, as at the end of present conflict the Kaiser would need the good offices of the United States in the formulation of peace terms.

The Danville Register, which views the present controversy between the United States and Germany through the same lenses says:

"The friendly attitude of the German government as manifested in its recent reply to the American protest against its submarine warfare methods, and the frank efforts of Count von Bernstorff to reassure the American and the German governments of the good intent of both combine to strengthen the hope that hostilities between the two nations may be avoided. Ambassador Bernstorff is convinced, it seems, that the masses of the German people do not understand the feeling and attitude of the American people, having been misled by the German jingo press and its violent and unreasoning hostility to the United States. Furthermore, the ambassador is convinced of the earnest desire and purpose of the President and the government to maintain strict neutrality and to discharge every duty required by their attitude without fear or favor.

"There are rash and reckless newspapers in both Germany and the United States which are apparently seeking to inflame hostile feeling between the two countries, but we are persuaded that these do not represent the calm judgment and feeling of the masses, either in Germany or in this country.

"It is absurd to assume that Germany deliberately desires and seeks a pretext to involve this country in warfare, despite the specious reasoning of some who profess to believe that.

"The full and frank concession of mistake and unintentional invasion of our rights in the attack on the steamship Gulfight is the latest evidence of the German determination to be fair."

SUBMARINE WARFARE.

The New York World recently alluded to the fact that Germany is losing by insisting on conducting her under sea war. The World says: "Revenge," said Bismarck, "is a delicacy that should always be eaten cold." Had the Berlin government not forgotten this wise maxim, it would have spared Germany immeasurable trouble and immeasurable infamy. The German submarine war-zone policy was an act of revenge, but of revenge that had had no time to cool. The British government through superior sea power, had undertaken to cut off German importations of food, and the German government refused to await the inevitable futility of such a policy. Sanity was forced to give way to Schrecklichkeit. Had Berlin displayed ordinary common sense and treated the British starvation policy with contempt, the neutral nations whose trade was interfered with would have brought Downing Street to terms. No British government could have resisted the friendly neutral governments. But Berlin must needs have its hot, seething revenge, and so it proceeded to run amuck against friend and foe alike. Its submarine policy is the most ghastly failure of the war. About sixty British merchant ships have been sunk since the war zone was established, and a third as many neutral ships. Hundreds of neutrals and noncombatants have been murdered in cold blood, and the moral sentiment of all civilization is now mobilized against Germany. The military advantages that Germany has gained are inconsequential. The moral losses defy calculation. It is Great Britain chiefly that has profited from Germany's insensate methods, for her own offenses against neutral commerce are practically forgotten in the storm of indignation aroused by Germany's resort to massacre."

ICONOCLASM OF THE WAR.

Now that war between Italy and the Germanic allies is in progress historic and interesting cities are liable to be irreparably damaged, and Venice, the Queen of the Adriatic, will doubtless become a target for bombs. The beautiful and massive St. Mark's Cathedral may be another year in the condition of the edifice at Louvain. Beautiful effigies, the work of master minds, are likely to become as the caryatides of ancient Athens, and destined for museums centuries hence.

The marring of Louvain is regretted by people of all nations who have had the opportunity to inspect that city and its grand cathedral. Venice is another of the many attractions of the tourists. The wonderful clock at Strasburg was preserved over forty years ago during the war between France and Germany, to the delight of the many who visit that city, and it is hoped that the city of the doges will suffer no material damage at this time. War, however, is not sentimental, and Bellona has no respect for statues or works of art when she goes forth with her torch.

The Italian government has declined to accept the military services of Prince Louis Napoleon Bonaparte because of its delicacy of feeling toward France. Representatives of the former ruling families are forbidden by French law to serve in the army or navy of that country, and for that reason Prince Louis offered his services to Italy when she became an ally of France.

Roumania remitted a note to Austria on May 23 demanding territorial concessions and fixing June 6 as the time limit for a reply. Bulgaria is giving its support to the note. Austria is ready to concede pieces of the Maors Valley, a strip of Bukovina, and home rule for the rest of Transylvania under Hungarian dominion, or one-eighth of the Roumanian demands.

Christianity that girds on the sword and stands ready to yield it against an aggressor nation which professes another religion or has thrown Christian principles to the winds was the faith that the Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith, of St. Thomas' P. E. Church, in Washington, in his sermon yesterday morning, intoned as, opposed to that which stands for peace without preparedness.

Two great battles are in progress in Galicia. The Russians have made a considerable advance on the lower reaches of the San, and have driven the Austro-Germans back to the Leng River with heavy losses. To the southwest of Lemberg the Austro-Germans are advancing, although the Russians are contesting every inch of the roads to the Galician capital, which is the objective of the Teutonic allies.

There is a good deal of discussion in London on the part America will take in market matters in the event of a rupture of diplomatic relations with Germany. The belief is generally expressed by financiers that the reform of the American banking system, the opening of foreign branches by American banks and the immense American exports to belligerents put America in a position to be of the greatest possible help.

The first important battle of the Italian campaign is raging for possession of Tolmino, where the Italians have met with the first serious opposition in their advance across the Austrian frontier. The Austrians have an army said to number 350,000 men in the hills surrounding the place and are bombarding the Italian army, under King Victor Emmanuel personally, facing the Austrians is said to number nearly 400,000. The fighting is still going on, with indecisive results.

A rock, instead of a torpedo, wrecked the steam yacht Loando, according to a telegram received in Norfolk by T. S. Sothgate, president of a film corporation. The Loando left Norfolk for Nassau, where she was to have been torpedoed as part of a moving picture submarine drama. She ran into a storm off the coast of Florida last week, was driven on the rocks, and is a total wreck.

The three magistrates who sat Saturday at Charlottesville in the preliminary hearing of William O. Durrett, charged with fatally shooting Guy Adams, a young Albemarle farmer, decided that there was not sufficient evidence to justify sending the accused on to the grand jury. Mr. Durrett declared that in the scuffle with Adams for the possession of the hoe, with which the latter attempted to strike him, his pistol was discharged. His evidence was largely corroborated by other witnesses.

PAYING FOR A DYNASTY'S SINS

Germany is paying bitterly for sins not really her own. The German people are one of the kindest in the world, and just now they are denounced for unusual cruelty and brutality. That this should be the case is best proof ever given of the great German national failing, which is excessive deference to authority. The German is absolutely unique in that he combines high intelligence and childlike obedience. He does not understand how to rebel, and that is something every nation should know if it values its existence.

The German people are not responsible for the cruelties of the present war. When the Prussian armies invaded France in 1870 they were noted for their strict discipline and their respect for the life and property of noncombatants. All things requisitioned were paid for, and women received protection and kindness. If Germany has so changed as in this war, it is due to the government, and the government receives its color from the Emperor. The government is the Emperor and his entourage of parasites and sycophants.

Germany is dying of kaiserism. If she would live she must put away the evil thing. One group of men in Germany have the power to save the nation from its extreme peril. They are Hindenburg, Mackensen, Kluck and their associate generals, who possess the confidence of the people and command the German armies. It is their duty to depose the Emperor, establish a provisional government and treat for peace. Germany without the Hohenzollerns would receive easier terms than with William II. still governing and still likely to make war at the next opportunity.

Unfortunately, the German generals are not likely to take this bold and desperate course. They will probably remain loyal until inevitable destruction descends on Germany. When Charles I. threatened the vital interests of England, he was deposed. When Louis XVI stood in the way of the struggling French nation, he received like treatment. Germany might profit by their example. The sad thing is that a ruined and hopeless Germany will likely be found clinging to the Hohenzollern dynasty just as loyally as in the past. —Richmond Times-Dispatch.

WONDERFUL INVENTION.

New Electrical Machine Furnishes Ray More Powerful Than X-Ray.

New York, June 7.—Dr. Claude H. Lavender, of the United States public health service, stationed at Ellis Island, has been directed by Byron R. Newton, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury to make a careful investigation of the workings of an electrical machine invented by Charles H. Stanley, of this city, which, it is claimed, produces a new ray that is said to be perfectly harmless and more penetrating than the X-ray.

It is said that surgeons will now be able to operate directly in the so-called "Stanley ray" without the preliminary photograph of the part. This will make it possible, it is insisted, for an operating table at an army base at the front to be fitted up with the new apparatus underneath in such a manner that when a wounded man is laid upon it the location of a bullet or bit of shrapnel in the body will be at once revealed so that the surgeons can remove it without further ado.

RECTOR DEFIES BISHOP.

Philadelphia, June 7.—Defying the mandate of Bishop Rhinelander that he vacate the rectory of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, the Rev. George Chalmers Richmond occupied the pulpit yesterday, while his faithful communicants locked the church gates and barred out the Rev. Henri M. G. Huff, who was delegated by the Bishop to take charge the first Sunday in June. "Huskies" stood guard over the locked gates and harangued the new rector and the "curbstone" vestry which has opposed Dr. Richmond since the upheaval in the church began.

While the neighborhood looked on Dr. Richmond stalked out and through the iron bar fence "read a riot act" to the Rev. Mr. Huff, which bristled with uncompromising remarks. When two members of the "curbstone" vestry attempted to pass the gate they were confronted by policemen and Richmond adherents and turned back. Meanwhile Dr. Richmond forcibly ejected from the yard Adolph Ripka, a janitor. Then while congregation members "held the fort," Dr. Richmond ascended the pulpit and delivered one of his spiciest sermons, in which he attacked the "vested interest," the church leaders and society in general, declaring, among other things, "that he would sooner live in hell than in Heaven with some people."

SINKING OF THE GOLIATH

Turkish Torpedo Boat Under German Commander Sank Her.

London, June 7.—Reuters Amsterdam correspondent sends the following report of the sinking of the British battleship Goliath in the Dardanelles in the middle of last month by the Turkish torpedo-boat Mouvenet-I-Milleh:

"The British were in the habit of enfilading the Turkish flank on Morto Bay, to end which, Lieutenant Commander Firl, who was the German commander of the Turkish torpedo-boat Mouvenet-I-Milleh, was ordered to creep down the entrance of the Dardanelles at night and attack. "Advancing close and ascertaining that two ships nearby were British he manned the torpedo tubes. The two British ships began to flash recognition signals. The Mouvenet-I-Milleh discharged a torpedo, which struck the Goliath under the bridge. A second torpedo hit her between the funnels and a third on the quarter."

"In three minutes the work was over. There was a dull explosion and a sheet of fire and the vessel sank without a soul being seen on deck."

"Thereupon the Turkish boat doubled back at full speed, escaping the enemy destroyers. While the searchlights glared the British torpedo-boats closed in and received a hail of shots from the coast defenses. The Turkish boat returned safely to her base with her crew of 60 men, of whom 14 were Germans."

APPEAL FROM THE VATICAN

Catholics Requested to Be Generous—Revenues Lower.

All Catholics in the archdiocese of Baltimore were called upon at all of the masses yesterday to contribute toward the support of the Vatican. All revenues for the Holy See have been cut off in France and Italy because of the European war, and the pastors of the various churches appealed yesterday that the annual Peter's pence collection be as liberal as possible.

The source of revenue has not only been cut off from France and Italy because of the war, but Austria, which formerly contributed a large amount, will send but little to the Holy See, as well as other nations of Europe which are engaged in the war. It is estimated that the annual Peter's pence averages a million and a half dollars. It is said that one year it amounted to $4,000,000. It was explained yesterday that the Pope is under a very heavy expense and his only revenue is from the gifts of the people of the church.

BIG VICTORY FOR ALLIES

Turks Being Rolled Back Toward Constantinople—Moslems Short of Ammunition

London, June 7.—The greatest battle yet fought along the Dardanelles resulted in a big victory for the allies, who are rolling the Turks back toward Constantinople. The fighting is still going on, the Turks battling with bayonets, apparently being short of ammunition. The British have taken the principal trenches of the Turks, some of which were filled with dead. The Turks have lost more than 20,000 men in the three days' fighting. The French also have made great gains, the advance in 24 hours of the allies being more than 3 miles. The warships are again shelling forts and trenches. While seeming to lack small arm cartridges, the Turks have plenty of artillery shells, and replied vigorously to the warships. The Australians and French territorial troops have behaved with great gallantry. Two thousand shells it is calculated fell on Chanak when the British fleet tried to force the Narrows of the Dardanelles.

CLODBURST CAUSES WRECK.

Storm in West Kill Three When Train Leaves Track

St. Paul, June 7.—Torrential rains accompanied in some sections by destructive winds and electrical storms caused three deaths Saturday night together with considerable property damage in Western Wisconsin and Eastern Minnesota.

A Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul passenger train left the rails near Lake City, Minn., on a storm-damaged bridge, killed the engineer and fireman. A cloudburst near Roberts, Wis., caused the derailment of another passenger train from Chicago and the death of the engineer.

R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight in Lee Camp Hall. Reports will be made of the Confederate Veteran reunion held in Richmond.
